

2022 South Dakota Professionals Range Camp

June 28-30, 2022
Tuesday-Thursday

The purpose of Range Camp is to educate attendees in range and natural resource management and stewardship.

2022 Theme: Novel Management - Rangeland Riparian Restoration and Virtual Fencing

Audience: "Agency" staff
(NRCS, BLM, USFS, SDSU, NGOs, etc.)
Producers more than welcome!!

The Branding Iron
Belle Fourche, SD
with field sites
N of Belle

Agenda overview*

- Day 1: SD Stream Guide Project, Riparian Basics and Management (lunch, supper provided)
- Day 2: Special Topics - Pierre Shale Plains, Ecological sites, Virtual fencing (all meals provided)
- Day 3: Riparian Assessment Exercise, Site and Structure Selection, Range Evaluation (bfst, lunch provided)

*Detailed agenda will be emailed to registered participants. Agenda subject to change.

For more information:

Krista Ehlert, SDSU
605-394-2236,
krista.ehlert@sdstate.edu

Matt Scott, USFS
307-399-3425,
mcscott@fs.fed.us

Mitch Faulkner, NRCS
605-519-1446
mitch.faulkner@usda.gov

Registration is $150 per participant.

You can register online at sdrangelands.com and pay by CC or please call SDSU West River Research & Extension Center at 605-394-2236 with name, email address, affiliation, and bring a check on Day 1 made out to "SD SRM."
Refunds are not guaranteed if cancellations occur after 6/10/2022.